

CASH INJECTION

GOH CONSULTING

Goal

Generate 5 - 15 new clients in one week - an extra $10-20k for your business to prepare for paid ads

What Is It?

You either launch a brand new offer or “relaunch” an old offer (with a ton of changes and upgrades)

Make sure you have these 3 things

- Clear and irresistible outcome
- Exciting packaging/ messaging that increases urgency and confidence
- Decreases fear and uncertainty

To make this actually work, you have to make your offer even more irresistible by using all 3 options

1. Schedule a price increase

You’re probably going to raise your price, so just schedule it for January and make December the last opportunity to get it at the current price - “cheapest it’ll ever be”

2. Add a bonus

Adding extra 1-1 calls with you

Offer workshop

DFY aspects

Making the payment options easier to pay

3. Having a strong guarantee

Conditional guarantee

- If you don't (HIT GOAL), in (TIMEFRAME) We will (GIVE YOUR MONEY BACK)"
- "If you don't (HIT GOAL), in (TIMEFRAME) We will (WORK WITH YOU FOR FREE TILL YOU DO)"

Things To Note

The thing that makes this entire cash injection work is marketing two things - ROI, and COI

Return on Investment (ROI) - How can people see a direct return on investment after working with you

- Do you clearly show how they can get X result while working with you?
- Do they understand the process and mechanisms you use to get them from point A to point B?

Cost of inaction (COI) - Do they understand what happens if they don't sign up to you today? What's the cost of inaction?

- Make them realize what they're missing out on and that they're actually losing more money not working with you
- When you get them to realize that, that's what will get them to move forward with you and your program

- Price increase in cash campaign is one of the best ways to make them realize what they're missing out on

Have a 1-2 week time frame for this cash campaign so you have time to plan out the marketing strategy and material

DO NOT RUSH INTO THIS CAMPAIGN

If your audience isn't active/ getting value from you, do not start this campaign right away

- Reengage the old audience - Spend a week giving tons of valuable content to warm people up

And once you're getting good feedback from your audience, do not be afraid to post everywhere and let everyone know about it

- Posting and promoting on every single platform
- Worry about posting too much, not too little
- If you post one time only 5% of your audience will actually see it

2 Types of Promotions

To succeed with this entire campaign, you need 2 types of promotions: public and private

1. Public promotion

Announcing it on your story, filming reels, and posting to your followers

Post Example:

Before posting your announcement story, share it with clients and prospects

"Hey I'm curious does this resonate with you?"

"What stood out for you?"

"What can I change to make it better?"

You need feedback to really resonate with your market so you can actually get inbound leads coming to you

Schedule out stories and posts for each day of the campaign, know what you're going to post before hand and hit different pain points on each day

Ex

- Monday: Announcement for price increase + bonuses + CTA
- Tuesday: Social proof + Promote client interview
- Wednesday: Personal story + personal results
- Thursday: Countdown + reminder for offer + mention guarantee + CTA
- Friday: Social proof + More client results
- Saturday: Countdown + CTA
- Sunday: Final day CTA + Urgency + Recap of entire offer

2. Private promotion

You need to promote privately and follow up with past calls and past leads

- People that didn't buy on a sales call, forgot to book in a time, wasn't the right time, etc - people who already showed interest but didn't go through

The more conversations you have, the more money you make

Create a warm list of contacts that you're going to reach out to personally

- Group of people who should have booked, but didn't
- Booked but didn't buy, etc

Create another list of people who might know someone who you can help

- Ex. I'm helping coaches and if I'm good friends with John who's an agency owner, he will know coaches that might need my program
- Look in your network and compile a list of all of them

Send a personalized message to each person, take your time with this, and see if this a good fit

Templates #1

Hey (name) - we're testing something new out that might help you with (objection he's facing)

I know you mentioned that (obstacle) has been stopping you from moving forward, so when I was putting this program together it reminded me of our conversation

Want me to send you more info on how this works

No worries if you're not interested, just thought i'd reach out

Templates #2

Hey (name) I'm in the middle of launching something for (niche) who want (result) and I thought you might know someone who'd be interested

Does anyone come to mind?

Btw if they sign up, will send over $1000 as a thank you

Action Items

1. Make sure your offer for this cash campaign is actually good

What does your price increase, bonuses, and guarantees look like?

- What is this offer for, who is it for, what is the outcome?

2. Create a time frame where you will actually launch this price increase campaign and schedule out content at least 3 days in advance

Know when you're launching, what content you're going to post on each day, and have pure clarity on what you will be doing

3. Increase value perception (ROI and COI)

Brainstorm how you will make your prospects understand the ROI and the COI of your program

- What will they get out of it? Why should they join it?

4. Social proof

Have your best social proof and client testimonials ready to post

5. Create 2 lists of people that you will be reaching out to privately once you launch this campaign

List 1: People that showed interest in your program but didn't end up buying

List 2: People that potentially know others that may be interested in your program

6. Launch the campaign and make some money
