I Made It Moment: Moment where you achieve a goal that your audience aspires to achieve

- Telling your mom how much you made in a month
 - SooWei
 - Jake Seals
- Buying a car for yourself
 - Josh Chang
- Buying a big gift for a loved one

Why does this work?

- Desired outcome that everyone wants -> not just my ICP, but my dream follower
- Peaks huge curiosity, how did this 19 year old kid make $150k/mo? -

Positions you as an authority - that you've achieved something that your ICP wants

How should you do it

1. Find out what outcome your audience truly wants
2. See how you can capture that moment in an authentic, natural way
3. Edit and be intentional with the visual hook
4. Post it and blow up

Client Testimonials: Compilation of client talking good about you, transformations you help them with, etc

- SooWei

Why does this work

- Proof is the one piece of marketing that triumphs everything - Show don't tell
- In a time where claims are made everywhere by everyone, stand out by showing what you've done for clients

How should you do it

1. Gather all your client interviews (if you have none, schedule 5 right now)
2. Get your editor to clip up the best parts of the interview (send him this message)
 - a. Hey EDITOR NAME, i'm looking for your help to create the single best reel that we're going to post. I realised the amount of clients we've helped is not represented in the content and I want to change that by creating a compilation of client results. This is not just a regular reel that we're creating, i will pin this and hundreds of thousands of people will see this when they land on my page. You up for it?

Send this message after he replies

- b. Awesome man here's what I want you to do. I want you to create a compilation and find the best parts of this client interview where clients are talking about how I changed their lives. This has to be the single best parts where they express the most amount of emotion

3. Post it and build an immense amount of trust

Carousel: Explanation of your unique mechanism + Client case studies + CTA to Freebie

- SooWei
- Alessio and Bryan

Why does this work

- Explanation on exactly why your unique mechanism is different from anything they've ever tried
- Show your best case studies on why this actually works - Spark curiosity and build the first touch point by sending them a freebie
- Continue conversation from there and book them in

How should you do it

1. Visual Hook:
 - a. What is a desired outcome that you have?
 - b. What is a common obstacle that your audience faces
2. Showcase the benefit of the desired outcome
 - a. Lifestyle
 - b. Work
 - c. Relationships
 - d. Things you and your audience cares about
3. Breakdown the processes that lead to the desired outcome a.
 - Step 1
 - b. Step 2

c. Step 3

4. Name this workflow and spark curiosity
 - a. Example: I created an X Content Creation system that helped me get A+ clients, getting me results like this
5. Back it up with testimonials
 - a. X did it and achieved this
 - b. Y did the same and achieved this
 - c. Z did it and achieved this
6. CTA: If you want to learn exactly how I did this, comment down "KEYWORD" and I'll send it to you
