GOH CONSULTING

Goal

Goal: Look through your past clients who booked a call with you but did not buy AND past clients that stopped working with you

- Chances are they're still stuck at the same spot and if you reach out to them

These are the lowest-hanging fruit and we want to get cash in your business ASAP

Process

Go to Calendly, GHL, or wherever people schedule calls with you

- Look at past calls in the last 12 months and reach out to every single one of them through Instagram

Send a voice note, to make it extremely personalised and increase the chances of them responding to you

- "Hey NAME, it's been awhile since we last spoke. small talk here What have you been up to?"

Once they reply, with how things are going, ask them if they've achieved their goal yet

- "That's awesome, did you manage to achieve your DESIRED GOAL btw?"

If they say no, you want to act shocked and in disbelief

- "Oh wow how come?"

They'll explain blah blah and if they don't say the obstacle then say this

- "What's stopping you from achieving GOAL?"

If they do say their obstacle, then propose a call

- “Honestly would love to see if we can revisit the convo we had last month/ year and see if we can help you solve PROBLEM to achieve GOAL. Down to hop on a call and discuss more details?”

Do not follow this script word for word, this is just an example

- The most important part about everything is that you trust your gut, genuinely care about the client, and don't come across as too salesy

If you run an established coaching business, you should generate a good amount of money from this
